BLASC- Dale Carnegie - Organizational Health

Professional Development Opportunity:

May 20th Lunch n Learn in conjunction with Dale Carnegie, focused on understanding workplace trends shaping performance this year. It's called "Organizational Health in 2026" and it's based on the data from a report found here: Organizational Health in 2026: What Leaders Must Address Now Webinar \(Link\)

Focus includes these 5 things:

1. Understanding the current state of organizational health and the workforce trends shaping workplace culture in 2026.
2. Interpreting key data insights from the report and their implications for leadership effectiveness and organizational performance.
3. Identifying the five strategic tensions influencing culture, engagement, and retention.
4. Evaluating alignment gaps between leadership perception and employee experience within their organization.
5. Developing leadership actions that strengthen communication, workforce engagement, and cultural reliability.
